

"Unity and Diversity in Higher Education"

2024 Annual Conference Theme: "Unity and Diversity in Higher Education", April 21-23, 2024. Proposals should address the ways in which black professionals have made their campuses inclusive and united during this time of uncertainty with the legislature in Kentucky.

Your proposal should include an abstract of 150-400 words identifying the intended strand and format for the proposed session. Presentations will be in 45-60 minute time slots. We encourage many topics not limited to below:

Proposals are being accepted for a broad variety of areas including:

- Equity in Higher Education
- Racial Battle Fatigue in Higher Education
- Mental Health – Self Care
- Societal Level Strategies for the Prevention of Racial Trauma
- Faculty Challenges in Higher Education
- Staff Challenges in Higher Education
- Facing racial inequalities in Kentucky and on our college campuses
- Why is Adaptability crucial to Viability?
- How do we meet students where they are and make them successful during these times?
- Are we our brothers/sisters' keeper or are we barriers to our/their success?
- The "Black" family – strength, overcoming, and perseverance

Student Sessions:

- Guiding your learning beyond the classroom
- Creating a personalized college success roadmap
- Getting connected and staying resilient
- The power of networking
- Presentation of yourself – first impressions mean everything
